The need for redemption is in the heart of the Human race. We look for someone greater then ourselves to rescue us from the problems of this life. Job looked forward to his coming day of redemption, after his death and decay. Nevertheless, just who is the Messiah? What is the Messiah’s nature? Is he a great man? Is he an angel? Is he God? On the other hand, is He the Son of God? Moreover, how can God have a Son?

Christianity, Islam and Judaism all have a different view of what is the nature of Messiah. Islam rejects the Christian view as blasphemy. To Islam the Messiah is just a great prophet, but Mohammed is the greatest and final prophet. In Judaism, the belief in Messiah is a necessary requirement but the Messiah will be just a man, the greatest of all men but still just a man. Christians however believe the Messiah (Christ) is a man but also the “Son of God”. Just how can God have a Son?

At first glance, the idea of the Messiah being the Son of God does not make any logical sense. How and why would God have a Son? If God had a Son, would there then be two Gods. The concept of God is a logical concept as mentioned earlier based on several points including:

1. The need for a “First Cause” to bring the Universe into existence
2. The intelligence in Creation demands an “Intelligent Designer”
3. Morality and Truth also require the existence “Absolute Truth and Morality”

Our understanding of whom God is completely dependent of God revealing Himself. We can acknowledge God’s existence and necessity through logic, but knowledge of His identity is dependent on His revelation of Himself.

The “Supernatural” objective evidence proves the Bible is God’s word. It is through the actions of prophets in the Bible, who witnessed, received inspiration and recorded the written word is how we know who God is. The Bible is witnesses to God’s nature and identity. Therefore, to find out whom the Messiah is and his nature we need to look to the Bible.

Did God appear as a man?

To many Jews and Muslims the idea of God coming into the physical world as Man seems repulsive. However, from the early chapters of Genesis it is clear that God took upon Himself human form. In the very first chapter, man is made in the image of God. Not God, in the image of Man. Later we see God walking with Adam and Eve in the Garden. In fact, there are several places in scripture where God is described as a Man. So if God could come in human form in the past, why is it so hard to believe it could not be so at the time of Christ?

- God appears at Abraham’s tent as a Man
- God wrestles with Jacob as a Man
- Moses and the Elders of Israel see God in Human form
- God declares that Moses speaks to God in Human form,
- God stands before Joshua as a Man
- God in Daniel is called the Ancient of Days and is described in Human form.
- Ezekiel describes the Glory of the LORD as a Man

If there is a prophet among you,
I, the Lord, make Myself known to him in a vision;
I speak to him in a dream.
Not so with My servant Moses;
He is faithful in all My house.
I speak with him face to face.
Even plainly, and not in dark sayings;
And he sees the form of the Lord.
Why then were you not afraid
To speak against My servant Moses?”
Numbers 12:6-8

6. Commander of the Lord’s Army appears to Joshua

And it came to pass, when Joshua was by Jericho, that he lifted his eyes and looked, and behold, a Man stood opposite him with His sword drawn in His hand. And Joshua went to Him and said to Him, “Are You for us or for our adversaries?”

So He said, “No, but as Commander of the army of the LORD I have now come.”

And Joshua fell on his face to the earth and worshiped, and said to Him, “What does my Lord say to His servant?”

Then the Commander of the LORD’s army said to Joshua, “Take your sandal off your foot, for the place where you stand is holy.” And Joshua did so.. Joshua 5:13-15

7. Ancient of Days & Son of Man

I watched till thrones were put in place,
And the Ancient of Days was seated;
His garment was white as snow,
And the hair of His head was like pure wool.
His throne was a fiery flame,
Its wheels a burning fire;
A fiery stream issued
And came forth from before Him.
A thousand thousands ministered to Him;
Ten thousand times ten thousand stood before Him.
The court was seated,
And the books were opened.
I was watching in the night visions,
And behold, One like the Son of Man,
Coming with the clouds of heaven!
He came to the Ancient of Days,
And they brought Him near before Him.
Then to Him was given dominion and glory and a kingdom,
That all peoples, nations, and languages should serve Him.
His dominion is an everlasting dominion,
Which shall not pass away,
And His kingdom the one
Which shall not be destroyed.
Daniel 7:9-10,13-14

8. 26And above the firmament over their heads was the likeness of a throne, in appearance like a sapphire stone; on the likeness of the throne was the likeness with the appearance of a man high above it. 27Also from the appearance of His waist and upward I saw, as it were, the color of amber with the appearance of fire all around within it; and from the appearance of His waist and downward I saw, as it were, the appearance of fire with brightness all around.

Ezekiel 1:26-27

Did God appear as the “Angel of the LORD”?

“Malach Yehovah”

1. מַלָּאכָּה Mal’ak (mal-awk’); Noun Masculine, Strong #: 4397 messenger, representative messenger angel the theophanic angel
The Hebrew for the word angel means messenger. In the Old Testament, we read about a certain angel called the “Angel of the LORD”. This Angelic being talks first person, and accepts worship from and magnifies His name. The Angel also appears in Human form. The book of Malachi talks about this Angel coming to His Temple.

1 “Behold, I send My messenger, And he will prepare the way before Me. And the Lord, whom you seek,
Will suddenly come to His temple. Even the Messenger of the covenant, In whom you delight. Behold, He is coming,”
Says the LORD of hosts.

Malachi 3:1

Malachi is last book of the Old Testament is writing about 425 BC. So the Temple Malachi is writing about is the 2nd Temple. The Temple completed in 516 BC and destroyed by Titus in 70 AD. Here we are told the Messenger (מָלַך MAL'ak) of the “Covenant” will come to “His Temple”. The word for Messenger is the same as that for Angel. So this verse can be read, “The Lord whom you seek, will suddenly come to His temple, The Angel of the Covenant, in whom you delight”. This angel of the Covenant must have come prior to the Temple destruction in 70 AD. The Angel of the Covenant is the “Angel of the LORD” referred to in scripture.

B. The Angel of the Lord

1. The Angel of the LORD talks to Hagar

5The Angel of the LORD said to her, “Return to your mistress, and submit yourself under her hand.” 10Then the Angel of the LORD said to her, “I will multiply your descendants exceedingly, so that they shall not be counted for multitude.” 11And the Angel of the LORD said to her:

“Behold, you are with child,
And you shall bear a son.
You shall call his name Ishmael,
Because the LORD has heard your affliction.
12 He shall be a wild man;
His hand shall be against every man,
And every man’s hand against him.
And he shall dwell in the presence of all his brethren.”

13Then she called the name of the LORD who spoke to her, You-Are-the-God-Who-Sees; for she said, “Have I also here seen Him who sees me?”

Genesis 16:9-13

2. The Angel of the LORD talks to Abraham

11But the Angel of the LORD called to him from heaven and said, “Abraham, Abraham!”

So he said, “Here I am.”

12And He said, “Do not lay your hand on the lad, or do anything to him; for now I know that you fear God, since you have not withheld your son, your only son, from Me.”

13Then Abraham lifted his eyes and looked, and there behind him was a ram caught in a thicket by its horns. So Abraham went and took the ram, and offered it up for a burnt offering instead of his son. 14And Abraham called the name of the place, The-LORD-Will-Provide; as it is said to this day, “In the Mount of the LORD it shall be provided.”

15Then the Angel of the LORD called to Abraham a second time out of heaven, 16and said: “By Myself I have sworn, says the LORD, because you have done this thing, and have not withheld your son, your only son—17blessing I will bless you, and multiplying I will multiply your descendants as the stars of the heaven and as the sand which is on the seashore; and your descendants shall possess the gate of their enemies. 18In your seed all the nations of the earth shall be blessed, because you have obeyed My voice.”

Genesis 22:11-18

3. The Angel of the Lord talks to Moses

2And the Angel of the LORD appeared to him in a flame of fire from the midst of a bush. So he looked, and behold, the bush was burning with fire, but the bush was not consumed. 3Then Moses said, “I will now turn aside and see this great sight, why the bush does not burn.”
1. The Angel of the Lord talks to Balaam

   And he said, "No."

   Then the Lord opened Balaam’s eyes, and he saw the Angel of the Lord standing in the way with His drawn sword in His hand; and he bowed his head and fell flat on his face. And the Angel of the Lord said to him, "Why have you struck your donkey these three times? Behold, I have come out to stand against you, because your way is perverse before Me. The donkey saw Me and turned aside from Me these three times. If she had not turned aside from Me, surely I would also have killed you by now, and let her live."

   And Balaam said to the Angel of the Lord, "I have sinned, for I did not know You stood in the way against me. Now therefore, if it displeases You, I will turn back."

   Then the Angel of the Lord said to Balaam, "Go with the men, but only the word that I speak to you, that you shall speak." So Balaam went with the princes of Balak.

   Numbers 22:31-35

2. The Angel of the Lord talks to Israel

   Then the Angel of the Lord came up from Gilgal to Bochim, and said: "I led you up from Egypt and brought you to the land of which I swore to your fathers; and I said, 'I will never break My covenant with you. And you shall make no covenant with the inhabitants of this land; you shall tear down their altars.' But you have not obeyed My voice. Why have you done this? Therefore I also said, 'I will not drive them out before you; but they shall be thorns in your side, and their gods shall be a snare to you.'"

   So it was, when the Angel of the Lord spoke these words to all the children of Israel, that the people lifted up their voices and wept.

   Judges 2:1-4

3. The Angel of the Lord talks to Gideon

   Now the Angel of the Lord came and sat under the terebinth tree which was in Ophrah, which belonged to Joash the Abiezrite, while his son Gideon threshed wheat in the winepress, in order to hide it from the Midianites. And the Angel of the Lord appeared to him, and said to him, "The Lord is with you, you mighty man of valor!"

   Gideon said to Him, "O my lord, if the Lord is with us, why then has all this happened to us? And where are all His miracles which our fathers told us about, saying, 'Did not the Lord bring us up from Egypt?' But now the Lord has forsaken us and delivered us into the hands of the Midianites."

   Then the Lord turned to him and said, "Go in this might of yours, and you shall save Israel from the hand of the Midianites. Have I not sent you?"

   Then he said to Him, "If now I have found favor in Your sight, then show me a sign that it is You who talk with me. Do not departing from here, I pray, until I come to You and bring out my offering and set it before You."

   And He said, "I will wait until you come back."

   So Gideon went in and prepared a young goat, and unleavened bread from an ephah of flour. The meat he put in a basket, and he put the broth in a pot; and he brought them out to Him under the terebinth tree and presented them. The Angel of God said to him, "Take the meat and the unleavened bread and lay them on this rock, and pour out the broth." And he did so.

   Judges 6:11-20

4. The Angel of the Lord talks to Manoah

   And the Angel of the Lord appeared to the woman and said to her, "Indeed now, you are barren and have borne no children, but you shall conceive and bear a son and he shall be a Gezerah."

   So the woman came and told her husband, saying, "A Man of God came to me, and His name is Gezerah." And he said to her, "Open your mouth, and see that the Lord has spoken to you."

   Then the woman bore a son and called his name Samson. And a young woman of the磐石山 (Mareshah) was his father's wife. And the child of the woman grew. And she went down to her father's house to Ephrathah, and laid him in the lap of his mother, and his name was Samson. And his father and his mother knew not that he was the child of the Lord. And the Spirit of the Lord began to move him in Mahaneh Dan, between Zorah and Eshtaol. And his father and his mother went down into Egypt to bring him back. And when they brought him back, he sat in the vineyard of his father’s vineyard. And a young lion came up against him, and murdered him; and when his father and his mother saw it, they cried out, and the Spirit of the Lord began to move him in the vineyard of his father’s vineyard. And his father and his mother said, "Surely the spirit of the Lord is upon him, and he goes among the asses." So he returned to them from among the asses, and they said to him, "What kind of answer did he bring back from the Lord?"

   And he said to them, "What kind of words did I bring back from the Lord?" And his father said to him, "As your mouth is, so will be your fate."

   So his husband said to her, "Is not your heart pained because you have not given me children? Go in, eat a morsel of bread, and let your heart be refreshed. Perhaps it will be well with you, and you will bring forth a son." And she ate and her heart was refreshed. And when she rose up to go, it happened, she took three hundred pieces of wool and went to the vineyard of her father to gathering dates. And her husband said to her, "Why have you gathered these?" And she said to him, "The Lord has given me this." And she gathered them and put them in the end of the sleeve of her garment. And her husband said to her, "Where did you get these? Did I not tell you not to gather these?"

   And she said to him, "The Lord has given them to me, because the young lion came against me, and murdered me; and when I cried out to the Lord, He heard me, and delivered me from the mouth of the lion." And her husband said to her, "What have you done, that you have gathered these?" And she said to him, "The young lion came against me, and murdered me, but the Lord delivered me from his mouth." Then her husband said, "Then God has given you vindication from the mouth of the lion."

   Judges 13:2-25

2 פלי (Pil'iy (pil-ee')); Adjective, Strong #: 6383, wonderful, incomprehensible, extraordinary countenance was like the countenance of the Angel of God, very awesome; but I did not ask Him where He was from, and He did not tell me His name.

9 And God listened to the voice of Manoah, and the Angel of God came to the woman again as she was sitting in the field; but Manoah her husband was not with her. 10Then the woman ran in haste and told her husband, and said to him, “Look, the Man who came to me the other day has just now appeared to me!”

11So the Angel of the LORD said to Manoah, “Of all that I said to the woman let her be careful. 12She may not eat anything that comes from the vine, nor may she drink wine or similar drink, nor eat anything unclean. All that I commanded her let her observe.”

13Then Manoah said to the Angel of the LORD, “Please let us detain You, and we will prepare a young goat for You.”

14And the Angel of the LORD said to Manoah, “Though you detain Me, I will not eat your food. But if you offer a burnt offering, you must offer it to the LORD.” (For Manoah did not know He was the Angel of the LORD.)

15Then Manoah said to the Angel of the LORD, “What is Your name, that when Your words come to pass we may honor You?”

16And the Angel of the LORD said to him, “Why do you ask My name, seeing it is wonderful?”

22And Manoah said to his wife, “We shall surely die, because we have seen God!”

Judges 13:3-23

Is the “Son of God” God?

Nathan the prophet in 2nd Samuel 7 first introduces the idea of the Messiah being the “Son of God” to David: 14. The LORD through Nathan tells David the Messiah would come through his family line and the kingdom of David’s descendant would be forever. Nathan also informs David the coming King would also be the “Son of God”. Some interpreters have tried to explain the idea of “Son of God” in a metaphorical sense, the Messiah proceeded from God therefore he was the “Son of God” in the same way Adam was the first created Human and is called in Luke the son of God. (Luke 3:38).

However, in Psalm 2 this relationship between the Messiah and the LORD is unique. The whole world will one day submit to the “King” the LORD installs. We told to “Kiss” the “Son”; further, we are told all who put their “Trust” in Him will be blessed. In Isaiah, the “Son given” is called “Mighty God”, “Prince of Peace” and “Everlasting Father”. All terms which if applied to a human being would be blasphemous if the person was not in fact God.

The nations rage against the “Anointed” and the LORD. The Messiah is declared as “Begotten” when he comes into the world. John 3:16, qualifies the word “Begotten” with “Only”, meaning that the “Son of God” is of the same nature of the Father. In addition, for this reason the Son can be worshipped and called God because He is God.

C. Son of God

1. The Messiah will be the Son of God

When your days are fulfilled and you rest with your fathers, I will set up your seed after you, who will come from your body, and I will establish his kingdom. 2He shall build a house for My name, and I will establish the throne of his kingdom forever. 3I will be his Father, and he shall be My son. If he commits iniquity, I will chasten him with the rod of men and with the blows of the sons of men. 4But My mercy shall not depart from him, as I took it from Saul, whom I removed from before you. 5And your 3 יָלָד (yaw-lad'); Verb, Strong #: 3205, to bear, bring forth, beget, gender, travail (Qal) to bear, bring forth of child birth.

4 μονογενής Monogenes (mon-og-en-ace'); Word Origin: Greek, Adjective, Strong #: 3439single of its kind, only
2. The Son of the LORD reigns over the nations

Psalm 2

1 Why do the nations rage, And the people plot a vain thing?
2 The kings of the earth set themselves, And the rulers take counsel together, Against the LORD and against His Anointed, saying,
3 "Let us break Their bonds in pieces And cast away Their cords from us,"
4 He who sits in the heavens shall laugh; The LORD shall hold them in derision.
5 Then He shall speak to them in His wrath, And distress them in His deep displeasure:
6 "Yet I have set My King On My holy hill of Zion."
7 "I will declare the decree: The L ORD has said to Me, 'You are My Son, Today I have begotten You.
8 Ask of Me, and I will give You The nations for Your inheritance, And the ends of the earth for Your possession.
9 You shall break them with a rod of iron; You shall dash them to pieces like a potter's vessel.'"
10 Now therefore, be wise, O kings; Be instructed, you judges of the earth.
11 Serve the LORD with fear, And rejoice with trembling.
12 Kiss the Son, lest He be angry, And you perish in the way, When His wrath is kindled but a little. Blessed are all those who put their trust in Him.

Psalm 2:1-12

3. The Son of the LORD is called Mighty God

6 For unto us a Child is born, Unto us a Son is given; And the government will be upon His shoulder. And His name will be called Wonderful, Counselor, Mighty God, Everlasting Father, Prince of Peace.
7 Of the increase of His government and peace There will be no end, Upon the throne of David and over His kingdom, To order it and establish it with judgment and justice From that time forward, even forever. The zeal of the Lord of hosts will perform this.

Isaiah 9:6-7

4. The world grieve over the “Firstborn” Son who was pierced

Zechariah 12:10-11

Who is the “Arm of the Lord”? What is the identity of the person described in the 53rd chapter of Isaiah? The identity is revealed in the first verse of the 53rd chapter. He is called the “Arm of the LORD”, and the verse asks, “To whom is He revealed?” The term or description of the LORD’S arm is personified in a number of places. However, here in the 52nd and 53rd chapter we see that “Arm of the LORD” will suffer, be beaten, and killed but come back to life.

An arm is extension of the self. Our arms allow us to interact in the world. Isaiah is revealing to us information about the nature of the “Suffering Servant” that could easily be overlooked. The servant is none other then God himself who extends Himself into the world in the Body of man to intercede on the behalf of man because there is no alternative.

D. Arm of the Lord

1. All the Earth will see the Arm of the Lord

The LORD has made bare His holy arm In the eyes of all the nations; And all the ends of the earth shall see The salvation of our God.

Isaiah 52:10

Behold, My Servant shall deal prudently; He shall be exalted and extolled and be very high.

The world will see the LORD’S Arm

The “Arm” is the righteous Servant

Isaiah 40:1-10

8. The Arm of the LORD redeemed His people

   14. You are the God who does wonders; You have declared Your strength among the peoples.
   15. You have with Your arm redeemed Your people, The sons of Jacob and Joseph.
Selah
Psalm 77:14-15

9. The Arm of the LORD is the LORD’S Salvation

   1. Oh, sing to the LORD a new song! For He has done marvelous things;
   His right hand and His holy arm have gained Him the victory.
   2. The L ORD has made known His salvation; His righteousness He has revealed in the sight of the nations.
   3. He has remembered His mercy and His faithfulness to the house of Israel;
   All the ends of the earth have seen the salvation of our God.
Psalm 98:1-3

10. The Arm of LORD is the Light of the LORD countenance

You drove out the nations with Your hand, But them You planted;
You afflicted the peoples, and cast them out.

For they did not gain possession of the land by their own sword, Nor did their own arm save them;
But it was Your right hand, Your arm, and the light of Your countenance, Because You favored them.

Psalm 44:2-3

11. The Arm of the LORD is the promised redemption for Israel

Therefore say to the children of Israel: ‘I am the LORD; I will bring you out from under the burdens of the Egyptians. I will rescue you from their bondage, and I will redeem you with an outstretched arm and with great judgments. ‘I will take you as My people, and I will be your God. Then you shall know that I am the LORD your God who brings you out from under the burdens of the Egyptians.

Exodus 6:6

Who is the Glory of the LORD?

The “Glory of the LORD”, is identified as God, but is also identified with the Messiah. In Ezekiel, we are told the “Glory of the LORD” will rule from the Temple where his throne will stand. He is also identified in Human form in Ezekiel 1:25- 2:2.

We see the “Glory of the LORD” filling the Temple upon its competition in I Kings 8:11-13. The “Shikana” Glory of the LORD is God’s visible Glory manifested in the physical world.

Paul identifies Jesus as the Glory of the Lord in I Corinthians 2:8 which none of the rulers of this age knew; for had they known, they would not have crucified the Lord of glory I Cor 2:8

Isaiah also identifies the Messiah as both the “Arm of the Lord” and the “Glory of the LORD” in the 40th chapter in the first ten verses.

The glory of the LORD shall be revealed, And all flesh shall see it together; For the mouth of the LORD has spoken.”

Isaiah 40:5

When we read about the “Glory of the LORD”, we are reading about none other then the “Messiah” in his pre-incarnate Glory. Jesus was the “Glory of the LORD” revealed for all flesh to see.

E. Glory of the Lord

1. The Glory of the Lord hears Israel's complaints against the LORD

But what are we, that you complain against us?”” Also Moses said, “This shall be seen when the LORD gives you meat to eat in the evening, and in the morning bread to the full; for the LORD hears your complaints which you make against Him. And what are we? Your complaints are not against us but against the LORD.”

Then Moses spoke to Aaron, “Say to all the congregation of the children of Israel, ‘Come near before the LORD, for He has heard your complaints.”’ Now it came to pass, as Aaron spoke to the whole congregation of the children of Israel, that they looked toward the wilderness, and behold, the glory of the LORD appeared in the cloud.

And the LORD spoke to Moses, saying, “I have heard the complaints of the children of Israel. Speak to them, saying, ‘At twilight you shall eat meat, and in the morning you shall be filled with bread. And you shall know that I am the LORD your God.”

2. The Glory of the LORD was like a consuming fire on the top of Mt. Sinai

Exodus 16:7-12

The Glory of the LORD was like a consuming fire on the top of Mt. Sinai, and the cloud covered it six days. And on the seventh day He called Moses out of the midst of the cloud. The sight of the glory of the LORD was like a consuming fire on the top of the mountain in the eyes of the children of Israel. So Moses went into the midst of the cloud and went up into the mountain. And Moses was on the mountain forty days and forty nights.

3. The Glory of the LORD consumed the offering of Aaron

Leviticus 9:6-7

So Moses and Aaron went from the presence of the assembly to the door of the tabernacle of meeting, and they fell on their faces. And the glory of the LORD appeared to them. Then Moses said to Aaron, “This is the thing which the LORD commanded you to do, and the glory of the LORD will appear to you.” And Moses said to Aaron, “Go to the altar, offer your sin offering and your burnt offering, and make atonement for yourself and for the people. Offer the offering of the people, and make atonement for them, as the LORD commanded.”

4. Moses and Aaron fall on their faces before the Glory of the LORD

Numbers 20:6-7

So Moses and Aaron went from the presence of the assembly to the door of the tabernacle of meeting, and they fell on their faces. So the LORD spoke to Moses, saying, “Take the rod; you and your brother Aaron gather the congregation together. Speak to the rock before their eyes, and it will yield its water; thus you shall bring water for them out of the rock, and give drink to the congregation and their animals.”

5. The Glory of the LORD filled the Temple

I Kings 8:6-13

So Moses and Aaron went from the presence of the assembly to the door of the tabernacle of meeting, and they fell on their faces. And the glory of the LORD appeared to them. Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying, “Behold, the Lord GOD shall come with a strong hand, and His arm shall rule for Him; behold, His reward is with Him, and His work before Him. Behold, the Lord GOD shall come with a strong hand, and His arm shall rule for Him; behold, His reward is with Him, and His work before Him.”

6. The glory of the LORD shall be revealed to all flesh

Isaiah 40:5-10

The glory of the LORD shall be revealed, and all flesh shall see it together; for the mouth of the LORD has spoken. “Arise, shine: For your light has come! And the glory of the LORD is risen upon you.” For behold, the darkness shall cover the earth, and deep darkness the people; but the LORD will arise over you, and His glory will be seen upon you. The Gentiles shall come to your light, and kings to the brightness of your rising.

7. The glory of the LORD is the light to the Gentiles

Isaiah 60:1-3

Behold, the Lord GOD shall come with a strong hand, and His arm shall rule for Him; behold, His reward is with Him, and His work before Him.

8. The Glory of the LORD had the appearance of a Man

Isaiah 60:1-3

A voice came from above the firmament that was over their heads; whenever they stood, they let down their wings. And above the firmament over their heads was the likeness of a throne, in appearance like a sapphire stone; on the likeness of the throne was a likeness with the appearance of a man high above it. Also from the appearance of His waist and upward I saw, as it were, the color of amber with the appearance of fire all around.

Is the one pierced the LORD?

The Messiah would be pierced according to Isaiah 53:5. This was a clear descriptive character of the one who would rescue Israel according to Zechariah, in the 10th verse we read, “They will look on Me whom they pierced”. The one who is pierced is the “LORD” Himself, The LORD speaks first person throughout the chapter and in the 10th verse personalizes by saying they will look on “Me”, whom they pierced. Psalm 22:16-18 also picture the Messiah, being pierced, both his hands and feet. One can clearly conclude based on the literal reading, the “Me” Pierced is Jesus Christ, who in the end of days will be received by the inhabitants of Jerusalem, who are surrounded by the Gentile nations. They will acknowledge Jesus is not only Messiah, but LORD.
