Apologetics Outreach: Challenging the Secular

12. Who is Messiah

When Jesus was in Judea 2000 years ago, the Roman occupation was oppressive and the people felt helpless. They looked for hope, much in the same way today people look for hope. The popularity of the cartoon/TV series "Superman" had a super-human like individual from the planet krypton right the wrongs of evil doers. Superman had two identities one a Clark Kent a "mild mannered" newspaper reporter with glasses and the other as Superman. When needed, Clark would transform from reporter to Superman. The two identities were so dissimilar that friends of Clark such as Lois Lane who new both Clark and Superman could not make the connection that both Clark and Superman were the same person playing two different roles.

The need for Superman rescue dates back to the beginning of man himself. One of the more well known is the Greek man-god known Heracles (Hercules-Roman) the son of Zeus and a mortal woman, who though fallible seeks to right injustice. Ultimately, its man's search for hope and meaning that leads him to search for a rescuer. We look for rescue, from the problems of life, sickness, injustice, poverty, hunger, war and death. The answer stems back to humanity's creation.

It was very good

After humankind was created on the 6th day, God saw everything was "very good".

Then God saw everything that He had made, and indeed it was very good. So the evening and the morning were the sixth day. Genesis 1:31

Why so bad?

If everything was "very good", what is the Bible's explanation for the condition of the world, for all the misery and pain people go through? The condition of man goes back to choice. God did not create robots, which did not have "Free will", meaning they had the ability to choose for themselves the choices they made. At man's creation, they had a choice to "obey God" or "Not obey God". This choice was typified in the "Tree of Knowledge" at the Garden of Eden.

In the Garden of Eden man, choose to disobey God and listen to the Serpent, whom was Satan speaking through the animal, to Adam and Eve. The Serpent called God a liar, and urged them to disobey God, by eating of the forbidden fruit. They listened to Satan, a fallen being, and humanity fell when they choose to disobey God.

The Seed of the Women

What earlier God declared as "Very Good" became corrupted; sin entered the Human race along with death and misery. Humanity had fallen, without hope, but in mercy, God opened a door of hope for mankind, a promise of redemption. The "Seed of women" a "Son of Man" would bruise¹ the head of the Serpent and his offspring, "The wicked".

And I will put enmity Between you and the woman, And between your seed and her Seed; He shall bruise your head, And you shall bruise His heel." Genesis 3:15

However, in this same verse we see the Serpent would bruise the "Heel" of the "Seed of the Women". The "Son of Man" the "Seed of the Women" would suffer the bite of the serpent at the heel. This is the first hint at the sufferings of the Messiah. Nevertheless, the "Son of Man", the seed of the Women, will vanquish or cover (Shoof…Hebrew) the Serpent/Satan.

This redemption is in the heart of all humanity. Man is looking and seeking redemption from the problems of this world.

Job one of the oldest books in the Bible, looked forward to his redemption in the latter years by a "Redeemer"²

25 For I know that my Redeemer lives, And He shall stand at last on the earth; 26 And after my skin is destroyed, this I know, That in my flesh I shall see God, 27 Whom I shall see for myself, And my eyes shall behold, and not another. How my heart yearns within me! Job 19:25-27

Here Job speaks of a future day when even after his body is decayed, He would see his "Redeemer" with new eyes and be in new flesh. This would a final or last event on the earth. However, some questions may arise here. Is Job talking about a man or is he talking about God. Is God Jobs "Redeemer" or the "Son of Man", the "Redeemer"?

Who is the Messiah³?

The word for "Messiah comes from the Hebrew root word, "Msh" which to "touch lightly" or "rub with oil" This word is applied to Priests (Exodus 28:41), Kings (I Kings 19:16), and Prophets (I Samuel 12:5) who were chosen by God to accomplish specific tasks. In fact, the foreign King Cyrus of Persia is addressed as "Anointed".

"Thus says the Lord to His anointed, To Cyrus, whose right hand I have held-To subdue nations before him And loose the armor of kings, To open before him the double doors, So that the gates will not be shut: Isaiah 45:1

Here Cyrus, chosen by God subdues the nations and he would later allow the exiles from Babylon return home and the Temple to be rebuilt. David calls Saul "the Lord's anointed" (I Samuel 24:6). Therefore, in one sense there are many anointed of the Lord, or messiahs People specifically chosen by God, to accomplish specific tasks. The term also has a very specific and individual meaning.

The Bible talks of a future King who will rule the Earth for eternity. This King is "Anointed" or chosen to fulfill this specific task. In Second Samuel 7, we have information about this individual's family line.

"since the time that I commanded judges to be over My people Israel, and have caused you to rest from all your enemies. Also the Lord tells you that He will make you a house.

- 12 "When your days are fulfilled and you rest with your fathers, I will set up your seed after you, who will come from your body, and I will establish his kingdom.
- 13 "He shall build a house for My name, and I will establish the throne of his kingdom forever.
- 14 "I will be his Father, and he shall be My son. If he commits iniquity, I will chasten him with the rod of men and with the blows of the sons of men.
- 15 "But My mercy shall not depart from him, as I took it from Saul, whom I removed from before you.
- 16 "And your house and your kingdom shall be established forever before you. Your throne shall be established forever." '2 Samuel 7:11-16

² ì Tb gaòal, gaw al' A primitive root, to redeem (according to the Oriental law of kinship), that is, to be the next of kin (and as such to buy back a relative's property, marry his widow, etc.):— X in any wise, X at all, avenger, deliver, (do, perform the part of near, next) kinsfolk (-man), purchase, ransom, redeem (-er), revenger.

³ ÇÆØĒrash⊕ach maw shee' - akh From H4886; anointed; usually a consecrated person (as a king, priest, or saint); specifically the Messiah:—anointed, Messiah.

Here the prophet Nathan tells David that from his family line will come, a "Son of Man", a "Seed of the Women" who will have the throne of David, and an eternal kingdom that will be established forever. This "Son of Man" would also be a "Son of David", therefore this person will be "Anointed" or chosen by God for a specific purpose. This individual in Judaism is "Messiah⁴" Son of David.

The Qualifications of Messiah

Beginning in the third chapter of Genesis we are given specific information about this coming, "Seed of the Women" through progressive revelation. With each qualification, the search narrows until the potential candidates become very narrow in scope.

For example, currently the population of the earth is 6.3 Billion people. If you were talking to some one without knowing anything about them except 3 items, could you find someone out of the 6.3 Billion? You could specify a time, place and article of clothing.

- Time: I will meet you on January 15th 2005 3:00 PM Jerusalem Time
- Place: At the Damascus Gate, Jerusalem
- Description: I will be wearing a Checkered Hat

By using, these 3 specific qualifiers we are able eliminate just about anybody from equation. Except for person who meet the qualifiers and the person who knew the qualifiers, everybody would be outside the loop on the meeting.

In this same manner through the prophets of Israel was the Messiah qualified. Specific information about Him, information spanning the generations of humankind. The Bible demonstrates its "Supernatural source" with "Supernatural objective evidence". Evidence outside the scope of the natural realm is supernatural in nature.

5 Even from the beginning I have declared it to you; Before it came to pass I proclaimed it to you, Lest you should say, 'My idol has done them, And my carved image and my molded image Have commanded them.' Isaiah 48:5

⁹Remember the former things of old, For I am God, and there is no other; I am God, and there is none like Me, ¹⁰Declaring the end from the beginning, And from ancient times things that are not yet done, Saying, 'My counsel shall stand, And I will do all My pleasure,' Isaiah 46:9,10

Menorah taken by Roman soldiers after Temple's destruction in 70 AD

With "Supernatural prophetic" utterances has God has qualified His Messiah. Specific characteristics revealed between 1500 to 425 years before his birth, narrowed the search for God's Chosen Messiah from the Billions born throughout the history of creation to just one person. The man Jesus Christ is the only person who ever lived who could fulfill the qualifications

- His Sex: "Son of Man" 50% of the population of those who have ever lived.
- His place of Birth: Bethlehem of Eprahatah 99.9..999% of Humans born in the world eliminated.
- His family line: Abraham, Isaac, Jacob, Judah, Jesse,

David...99.9999999% eliminated

- His time of death: End of 483 Jewish Years following command to rebuild Jerusalem, March/April. (See 70 Weeks of Daniel Class 6)
- Description of death: Pierced, whipped, innocent of crime
- Specific events: After his death Temple destroyed and City destroyed

Through these qualifiers alone just about every human being, who ever lived is eliminated from the possibility of being the Messiah chosen by God, who was to be King, Judge and Priest over the Earth. (SEE CHART BELOW)

⁴ The term Messiah is the English form the correct spelling of the Hebrew pronunciation is moshiach.

And after the sixty-two weeks Messiah shall be cut off, but not for Himself; And the people of the prince who is to come Shall destroy the city and the sanctuary. The end of it shall be with a flood, And

If Jesus was Messiah, why was he killed?

If what was going to happen were so clear in the scripture why did Jesus die? Roman occupation of Judea dated from the time of Pompey, the Roman General who conquered Jerusalem in 63 BC. The Jewish people hated Rome and wanted deliverance. They looked to the coming of Messiah, The Son of David, would vanquish the armies of the world. In addition, Jerusalem would become the capital of the Earth according to the prophets.

In the Old Testament, there are several competing pictures of Messiah. He is seen as the Son of Man, and Once the judicial power was suppressed, the Sanhedrin ceased to be. Yes, the scepter was removed and Judah lost its royal or legal power. And the Jews knew it themselves! Woe unto us for the scepter has been taken from Judah and the Messiah has not appeared!

.....The Talmud called Son of God. He is seen as Judge and King of the Earth while he is also seen as being a rejected servant and suffering. During the time of Roman occupation, Israel looked to coming of the Son of David who would rule the Earth. They did not look for a servant Messiah who was going to die. Jesus presented himself as the "Son of Man" who was going to suffer, this was contrary to the view of Messiah expected by Israel. Going back to the illustration of Clark Kent and Superman, Clark's friends could not make the connection between the two characters. One Messiah playing dual roles, "Suffering Servant" and "Conquering King" was not what was expected of whom the Messiah was going to be. This dual role will be unveiled at the end of time is hinted at in Isaiah 52:14, 15

14 Just as many were astonished at you, So His visage was marred more than any man, And His form more than the sons of men;

15 So shall He sprinkle many nations. Kings shall shut their mouths at Him; For what had not been told them they shall see, And what they had not heard they shall consider. Isaiah 52:14-15

The pictures of a "Suffering Messiah", "Conquering King", "Son of Man" and "Son of God" seem to be in conflict with each other. Jesus questioned the Pharisees about this conflict.

- 41 While the Pharisees were gathered together, Jesus asked them,
- 42 saying, "What do you think about the Christ? Whose Son is He?" They said to Him, "The Son of David."
- 43 He said to them, "How then does David in the Spirit call Him 'Lord,' saying:
- 44 'The Lord said to my Lord, "Sit at My right hand, Till I make Your enemies Your footstool" '?
- 45 "If David then calls Him 'Lord,' how is He his Son?"
- 46 And no one was able to answer Him a word, nor from that day on did anyone dare question Him anymore. Matthew 22:41-46

Later at his trial before the High Priest, this conflict to understand the "Son of Man" and "Son of God" is revealed. They could not understand the Messiah being both "Son of Man" and "Son of God".

63 But Jesus kept silent. And the high priest answered and said to Him, "I put You under oath by the living God: Tell us if You are the Christ, the Son of God!"

64 Jesus said to him, "It is as you said. Nevertheless, I say to you, hereafter you will see the Son of Man sitting at the right hand of the Power, and coming on the clouds of heaven."

65 Then the high priest tore his clothes, saying, "He has spoken blasphemy! What further need do we have of witnesses? Look, now you have heard His blasphemy! Matthew 26: 63-65

The solution to this conflict can be resolved in understand the "First" and "Second" Coming of Messiah/Christ. Jesus came the first time to die for the sins of the world the second time he comes, he will come to judge the world. The Pharisee at the time of Christ could not reconcile these two conflicting roles.

Messiah Son of Joseph

To solve this problem of conflicting pictures Judaism has arrived at the conclusion that there are two Messiah coming. One is "Messiah Son of Joseph" and the other "Messiah Son of David" According to Raphael Patai, Jewish author and Bible Scholar, he writes,⁵

Scholars have repeatedly speculated about the origin of the Messiah ben Joseph legend and the curious fact that the Messiah figure has thus been split in two. It would seem that in the early legend, the death of the Messiah was envisaged, perhaps as a development of the Suffering Servant motif. A prophecy of Daniel, written about 164 B.C.E., is the earliest source speaking of the death of a Mashiah ("Annointed") sixty-two (prophetic) weeks after his coming and after the return and rebuilding of Jerusalem (Dan. 9:24-26 see chapter 1).

When the death of the Messiah became an established tenet in Talmudic times, this was felt to be irreconcilable with the belief in the Messiah as the Redeemer who would usher in the blissful millennium of the Messianic age. The dilemma was solved by splitting the person of the Messiah in two: one of them called, Messiah ben Joseph, was to raise the armies of Israel against their enemies, and after many victories and miracles, would fall victim to God and Magog. The other Messiah ben David, will come after him (in some legends will bring him back to life, which psychologically hints at the identity of the two), and will lead Israel to the ultimate victory, the triumph, and the Messianic era of bliss.⁶

One Messiah, Two Pictures

This Messiah will be one person with two roles. His first coming was to Redeem mankind from their sins through his sacrificial death as the prophet Isaiah reveals (Isaiah 52:12-53:13). His second coming will be to judge a disobedient and sinful world, "To crush the head of the serpent". These dual roles are revealed in Zechariah 12:10-12. The one, "Pierced" is mourned over by the land of Israel as He returns to rescue Israel from the nations surrounding her and bent on her destruction (Zechariah 12:3,9).

10 "And I will pour on the house of David and on the inhabitants of Jerusalem the Spirit of grace and supplication; then they will look on Me whom they pierced. Yes, they will mourn for Him as one mourns for his only son, and grieve for Him as one grieves for a firstborn.

11 "In that day there shall be a great mourning in Jerusalem, like the mourning at Hadad Rimmon in the plain of Megiddo. 12 "And the land shall mourn, every family by itself: the family of the house of David by itself, and their wives by themselves; the family of the house of Nathan by itself, and their wives by themselves; Zechariah 12:10-12

The Rabbis also see this verse as referring to the Messiah, except they describe the one "Pierced" as "Messiah bar (son) Joseph", who will be killed and then brought back to life by "Messiah bar David" after the battle of Gog and Magog.

And the land shall mourn (Zech. 12:12). What is the reason of this mourning? R. Dosa and the rabbis differ about it. R. Dosa says: "[They will mourn] over Messiah who will be slain," and the rabbis say: "[They will mourn] over the Evil Inclination which will be killed [in the days of the Messiah]....."
(B. Suk. 52a)⁷

The rabbis have taught: The Holy One, blessed be He, will say to Messiah ben David, may he be revealed soon in our days!: "Ask of Me anything, and I shall give it to you ,for it is written, The Lord said unto me, Thou art My son, this day have I begotten thee, ask of Me and I will give thee the nations for thy inheritance (Ps. 2:7-8). And when he will see that

⁵ Raphael Patai, does comes from an anti-supernatural perspective. He does not believe the Bible is the Word of God. He is quoted to demonstrate a non-biased view of the two aspects of Messiah in scripture.

Messiah ben Joseph will be slain, he will say before Him: "Master of the World! I ask nothing of you except life!" God will say to him: "Even before you said, "life,' your father David prophesied about you, as it is written, He asked life of Three, Thou gavest it him (Ps. 21:5)." (B. Suk 52a)

The Septuagint translates almah here as virgin (parthenos) a young maiden was equivalent to a virgin. |
| 3. Son of God Psalm 2:7 (2 Samuel 7:12-16, I Chr. 17:11-14) 7" will declare the decree: The LORD has said to Me, 'You are My Son, Today I have begotten You. | And suddenly a voice came from heaven, saying, "This is My beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased" Matthew 3:17 (See Also Matt. 16:16; Mark 9:7; Luke 9:35; 22:70, Acts 13:30-33, John 1:34,49) | |
| 4. Seed of Abraham Genesis 22:18 18In your seed all the nations of the earth shall be blessed, because you have obeyed My voice." 18In your seed all the nations of the earth shall be blessed, because you have obeyed My voice." | Now to Abraham and his seed were the promises made. He saith not, And to seeds, as of many; but as of one, And to thy seed, which is Christ. Galatians 3:16 (See also Matthew 1:1 and Luke 3:34) | There are two geneolgies in the New Testament; Matthew 1:1-16 and Luke 3:23-38. Matthew is Joseph's line and demonstrated through Joseph, Jesus was of the royal line of David from Abraham. Luke showed the line of Mary from which Jesus came into the world. She was also descendent of Abraham and David. |

Bar Kockba (135 AD) the leader of the Jewish revolt during the time of Hadrian was viewed as Messiah. He was called the "The Son of the Star" because they felt through him they would utterly destroy Rome's armies. |
| 7. Tribe of Judah Genesis 49:10 10The scepter shall not depart from Judah, Nor a lawgiver from between his feet, Until Shiloh comes; And to Him shall be the obedience of the people. | Jesusthe son of Judah Luke 3:23, 33 | Targum Jonathan and Targum Pseudo Jonathanon both view this as referring to the coming of the Messiah. "How beauteous is the King, and Meshisha who will arise form the house of Jehuda"Targum Jonathan. |

| 8. Family Line of Jesse Isaiah 11:1 | Jesusthe son of Jesse Luke 3:23, 32 | Targum Isaiah states "And a King shall come forth from the sons of Jesse, and an Anointed One (or Messiah) |
|---|---|---|

The "Son of David" is seen as the conquering Messiah while Joseph is seen as the suffering or dying Messiah. |
| The One to be Ruler in Israel, Whose goings forth are from of old, From everlasting." 11. Time of Messiah Death foretold Daniel 9:25 25"Know therefore and understand, That from the going forth of the command To restore and build Jerusalem Until Messiah the Prince, There shall be seven weeks and sixty-two weeks; | ¹ Now it came to pass, when Jesus had finished all these sayings, that He said to His disciples, ² "You know that after two days is the Passover, and the Son of Man will be delivered up to be crucified." Matthew 26:1 | The 70 weeks of Daniel foretold the Messiah would be rejected during the month of Passover 483 Jewish years from the command to rebuild Jerusalem in Nehemiah 2:8 which took place in the month of Passover, Nisan in 444 BC. 483 Jewish years from that date was Passover 33 AD. |

Matthew 2:16 | Jeremiah 31 to 33 is Messianic in nature foretelling the establishment of the New Covenant with Israel's descendents in Jer. 31:31. Rachel weeping was a result of Israel's apparent destruction. The children of Bethlehem were killed to prevent the Messiah from living. |
| 13. John 8:57-58 | The concept of the Messiah Pre-existence is common Jewish belief "You find that at the beginning of the creation of the world King Messiah was born [and] that he emerged in the thought [of G-d] even before the world was createdPesiqta Rabbati, page 152b |
| 14. He Shall be Called Lord Psalm 110:1 ¹The LORD said to my Lord, "Sit at My right hand, Till I make Your enemies Your footstool." | 43He said to them, "How then does David in the Spirit call Him 'Lord,' saying: 44 'The Lord said to my Lord, "Sit at My right hand, Till I make Your enemies Your footstool"? 45If David then calls Him 'Lord,' how is He his Son?" 46And no one was able to answer Him a word, nor from that day on did anyone dare question Him anymore. Matthew 22:43-45 | The Midrash Tehillim, commentary on Psalms, 200-500 AD, on Psalm 21:1 says: "God calls King Messiah by His own name. But what is His name? Answer; Jehovah is a man of war"8 |

And He said to those who sold doves, "Take these things away! Do not make My Father's house a house of merchandise!" John 2:15,16 | |

Conclusion

Jesus Christ is the only person in history who lived who could fulfill the requirements of the Messiah. He suffered and died as scripture required of the Messiah, and this suffering Messiah is pictured as returning in glory and power as scripture also demonstrates. The reason Israel, could not see the Messiah in Jesus is because the "Suffering Messiah" was hidden from their view of scripture. The Messiah needed to die to pay for the sins of the world and redeem humanity from their fallen state.
